Notes	It has been said that every individual has at least one story hidden away inside—his or her own. Our Mennonite Brethren history provides us with a rich source of biography and autobiography, if for no other reason than that many of us have been caught up in the turbulence of the last century. Yet many intriguing stories lie buried in the grave because they never get told.

This novel depicts life in the Colorado sugar beet country during the 1920's and 1930's, the problems of child labor in the beet fields, and the experience of the German-Russian immigrants and their children at a time when many of the familiar ways and values of the Old Country were yielding to the inevitable lure of the New.

Notes	This is an interesting and true account of a Christian family caught in Germany during World War II. It reveals another facet, seldom seen, of those who escaped from the Iron Curtain, and those who were forced to remain behind as the war closed. The reader will see God's caring provision despite such painful hardships and trials. (PB,4 x 7,281 pages) $4.50
